Wait List Notification

Dear Prospective Client,

Thank you for your interest in Midwestern University Therapy Institute. Due to the high demand of our programs, an immediate opening may not be available, and the client seeking services may be placed on a wait list. You will be contacted as soon as a spot opens with a provider that is appropriate for the medical condition for which you are seeking treatment. Please remember that after school/work appointment times are in high demand, and having increased flexibility in your available hours can help you get an appointment sooner.

Upon request, we can provide a list of other local providers with whom you may seek therapy services while waiting for availability at Midwestern University Therapy Institute.

By signing this agreement, you are acknowledging that you may be placed on a wait list and Midwestern University Therapy Institute will contact you when a future availability opens.
